Digital Humanism Lecture 23 March 2021:

Digital Society, Social Justice & Academic Education
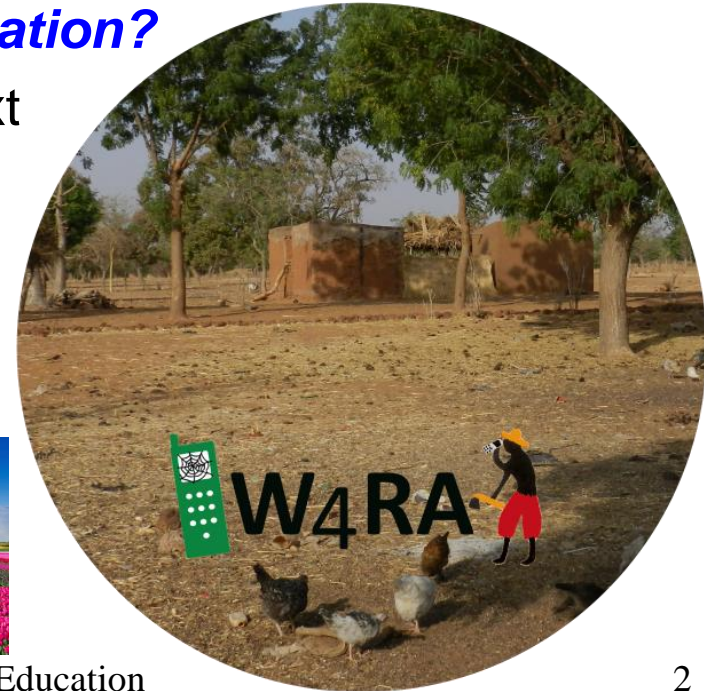

Speakers:

Saa Dittoh, Narayanan Kulathuramaiyer, Anna Bon

Moderator: Hans Akkermans

Digital Society, Social Justice & Academic Education

- DigHum: technology in support of human values & social justice
  - Q: How in university research & education?
    - Taking into account: "place" - context

Knowledge For Service - Digital Technology Positives & Negatives in African Rural Societies

- # Prof. Saa Dittoh:

  - Prof Agro-economics, former Pro-Vice Chancellor, UDS University for Development Studies, Ghana

  - Consultant World Bank, UNICEF, WFP, FAO etc.

  - Decades of research and education in working with rural communities in African drylands

Digital Socio-technical Innovation and Indigenous Knowledge

- Prof. Nara:

  - Director Institute of Social Informatics and Technological Innovations (ISITI)

  - Computer Science professor at UNIMAS, the University of Malaysia at Sarawak

  - 20 years of research and education in working with indigenous communities on the island of Borneo

UNIMAS
UNIVERSITI MALAYSIA SARAWAK

Digital Divide, Inclusion and Community Service Learning

- Dr. Anna Bon:
  - Senior Project Manager at the International Office of VU University Amsterdam
  - Researcher & Lecturer in ICT for Development
  - Directs the ICT4D-related W4RA research, education and community service programme